The Wilderness at Fortune Bay Raises over $26,000 during 10th Annual Indian Summer Classic

The Wilderness hosted a fundraising tournament for educational scholarships.

TOWER—The Wilderness at Fortune Bay Resort Casino raised $26,130 during the 10th Annual Indian Summer Classic.

The proceeds from the tournament go toward the Bois Forte Scholarship Fund, which provides students financial assistance while attending college or vocational training.

The tournament had a full field with 144 golfers participating from across the Midwest and Canada.

“This year’s number was achieved due to the generosity and support of many local and national businesses that sponsored the tournament,” said Tom Beaudry, who is the general manager for The Wilderness at Fortune Bay. “We would like to extend a special thank you to Fortune Bay Resort Casino, Northern State Bank of Aurora, and Key Bank as Title Sponsors at this year’s event.”

Other major sponsors included: MGT, Delta Dental, PolyMet, Johnson Brothers, Reinhart Foodservice, Kraus Anderson, US Steel, Red Circle, Essentia Health, Architectural Resources Inc., Twin Metals MN, Range Electric, Kemper Sports Management, Radotich Inc., PepsiCo, MTI Distributing, McGladrey, Upper Lakes Foods Inc., UNUM, IGT, KLB Insurance, Edwards Oil, TPI, Lenci Enterprises Inc., Frontier Ag and Turf, and Ferrell Gas.

Hole sponsors included: Wilkie Communications, North Star Publishing, Aristocrat, 5th Avenue Group, Blytheco, Bell Boy, Plaisted Companies Inc., Range Reliable Agency, Comprehensive Care Services, WinField, SelectAccount, Prime Therapeutics, Sunny Hill Distributors, Shubat Transportation, PowerRain, Starkovich Distributing, Norri Distributing, Dalco Enterprises, Farmer Brothers, UBS, Minnesota Chippewa Tribe, Zupanich Bros. Inc., Sjoberg Masonry, SEH Inc., Udell Dental, Aysta Water, WELY, American Bank, Bally Gaming, and RLBCI.

Plans are already underway for the planning of the 2015 event, which is scheduled for Thursday, August 20. The event is typically held on Mondays, but several sponsors have indicated a Thursday works better for their schedules.

“We’re also doing a morning and afternoon shotgun so that will be an added bonus as we had a waiting list last year,” said Beaudry. “I think that just speaks for the support that local and national companies have for this event.
