The Wilderness at Fortune Bay Raises over $34,000 during 11th Annual Indian Summer Classic

The Wilderness hosted a fundraising tournament for educational scholarships.

TOWER—The Wilderness at Fortune Bay Resort Casino raised $34,829 during the 11th Annual Indian Summer Classic.

The proceeds from the tournament go toward the Bois Forte Scholarship Fund, which provides students with financial assistance while attending college or vocational training.

The event was held on Thursday, August 20th with a morning and afternoon tournament that set an attendance record with over 175 total players for the day.

“This year’s number was achieved due to the generosity and support of many local and national businesses that sponsored the tournament,” said Tom Beaudry, who is the General Manager for The Wilderness at Fortune Bay. “We would like to extend a special thank you to Fortune Bay Resort Casino, Konami Gaming, Aristocrat Technologies, Northern State Bank of Aurora, and Key Bank as Title Sponsors of this year’s event.”

Other major sponsors included: Ainsworth Game Technologies, National Indian Gaming Association, McGladery, Delta Dental, KemperSports, Red Circle, Jacobsen Law Group, Spectrum Healthcare, Bally Gaming, TPI, CCStpa, Twin Metals MN, American Bank, Pepsi Co. and the Minnesota Indian Gaming Association.
